2- MiniRaca Liquidity Mining

As a liquidity provider, you will receive tokens from the exchange contract that you can then later use to withdraw your funds from the liquidity pool. As long as you have cryptocurrencies in the liquidity pool, you'll receive part of the fee paid by traders when they trade coins.

The fee is added to the liquidity pool and distributed proportionally to all current liquidity providers.

As Liquidity Pools make trading on DEX possible, anyone can become a liquidity provider as long as they can supply an equal amount of both BNB/BUSD and MiniRaca to an exchange contract on PancakeSwap.
